Following instruction, a person who has been baptized with water and in the name of the Holy Trinity in any branch of the Christian Church is presented to the bishop for Confirmation, for the strengthening of the Holy Spirit. The confirmed person is then entered as a Confirmed Communicant in the Parish Register.

A person who has been both baptized and confirmed by a Bishop in apostolic order other than the Episcopal Church (such as in the Roman Catholic or Greek Orthodox Church) must receive instruction before becoming a member of the Episcopal Church. Such an individual is not confirmed again but is received by the Bishop into this branch of the One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church and entered as a Confirmed Communicant in the Parish Register.
